CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR ORGANIZATIONAL SUCCESS

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is an increasingly critical issue for firms, employees, consumers, investors, governments, and NGOs. Organizations must be able to successfully develop and implement strategies to effectively manage CSR and sustainability to future-proof their organizations and careers, and create competitive advantage.

Some see it as just charity, but companies that “get it” and embrace it strategically can use CSR and sustainability performance to drive success and propel innovation, cost savings, brand differentiation, and customer and employee engagement. Whether you embrace it or not, you should be prepared for the impact that CSR’s increasing importance will have on your organization, sector, and career.

With decades of experience working with CSR and Sustainability, the professionals at the CSR Training Institute can help you better position your organization for success.

With our guidance and expertise, you’ll be ready to turn challenges into unique opportunities, create a strategic competitive advantage to drive success and facilitate a synergistic alignment between business value, social value, and environmental stewardship.

The CSR Training Institute’s team has 20+-years experience with a variety of projects, programs, and training throughout the Caribbean and Latin America. They have helped dozens of public and private organizations from around the world to integrate and align shareholder value through strategic CSR and engagement with the SDGs.

“A resounding recommendation for all levels of leaders.”

Dr. Mark Thorpe
Senior Vice President, Torex Gold

ABOUT OUR PROGRAMS

PART ONE: CSR Economics - Value, Impact, and Results

Negril, Jamaica | May 28 - 30, 2018

Business today is under increasing pressure to produce social value while aligning shareholder value, social impact and environmental stewardship to drive success and competitive advantage. If your organization wants to become more efficient in these areas, this is a program that you should not miss!

Program Overview

This program covers the full range of key CSR topics with a focus on efficiency, impact, and results. From standards and norms, to impact measurement, social license, reputational capital, partnerships, environmental economics and more, participants will be guided through the basics of using CSR to create value, impact, and advantage.

Using a unique blend of lectures, videos, small group-work, customized case studies and role-playing scenarios participants will comprehend critical issues and understand how to:

- ✓ Be more efficient at creating and aligning social, environmental and business value;
- ✓ Hit the ground running to create impact and make a difference from day one; and
- ✓ Leave with pragmatic tools and frameworks that can be applied to the workplace immediately.

PART TWO: CSR Impact Measurement

Negril, Jamaica | May 31 - June 1, 2018

Social impact and sustainability performance have become critical for business and career success. They are key success factors, yet most organizations struggle to effectively measure and manage social impact, resulting in less effective management, planning, budgeting and financing of programs that can drive business results.

Program Overview

By learning what to measure and how, identifying key metrics and properly gathering and managing data, you can give your organization a key competitive advantage in this dynamic and rapidly evolving landscape.

Two days of interactive lectures, videos, small group-work, customized case studies and role-playing scenarios provide participants with a strategic understanding and practical tools to drive business and sustainability performance.

- ✓ Better understand Impact Measurement Theory through pragmatic tools and frameworks for on-the-ground success;
- ✓ Develop and implement measurement programs that drive social performance and business success; and
- ✓ Integrate the SDGs with impact measurement to enhance stakeholder relations.

ABOUT OUR DIAMOND SPONSOR

Thank you to The JPS Foundation for being a Diamond Sponsor and supporting the programs and efforts of the CSR Training Institute. Without the JPS Foundation, this event simply would not be possible.

The JPS Foundation is the philanthropic arm of Jamaica's Energy Partner (JPS) and was established in October 2012 as the main channel for employee outreach and community development projects, thereby cementing its commitment to the Jamaican community and national development. Their overall objective is to contribute to national development by supporting projects that will improve lives and strengthen communities.

JPS achieves its mission through the careful selection of projects to ensure lasting impact, and through strategic partnerships with individuals and groups who share a similar vision for Jamaica.

As major players in the development of Jamaica, JPS embraces the need to effect change in the nation and support the objectives of Jamaica's Vision 2030, as well as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
